EMBOLDENED BY VICTORY

Anti-Saloon League Will Seek Further Conquest.

TO APPLY LOCAL OPTION LAW

Encouraged by the Outcome of the Elections in Wabash and Lawrence Counties, Foes of Demon Rum Will Carry the War at Once Into Other Counties—Moral Effect of Initial Victory Is Expected to Deter Any Movement Looking to the Repeal of the County Option Law.

Indianapolis, Dec. 31.—Having cleaned up on the brewery combine and the saloon keepers in Wabash and Lawrence counties, the Anti-Saloon League will proceed at once to apply the county local option law to other counties. The taste of victory was so exhilarating to the temperance crusaders that they are confident that the legislature will not dare to tamper with the county local option law. They see visions of a "dry" state within the next two or three years. Superintendent Shumaker of the Anti-Saloon League, declared today that in view of the result in Lawrence and Wabash counties there is not a Republican or Democratic member of the legislature who will dare to vote for the repeal of the county local option law. "The proposed repeal measure is doomed to defeat, just as sure as it comes up," said Mr. Shumaker.

Plans are being made now for holding elections by Jan. 20 in Putnam, Hamilton, Tipton, Jay, Huntington, Randolph, Wayne, Decatur, Switzerland, Gibson and Fountain counties. The Anti-Saloon League is back of the temperance forces in these places. The object in holding the elections in January is to show the legislature that the sentiment in favor of county local option is overwhelming and that it will mean political death for any representative or senator to vote in favor of repealing the law. Arrangements are being made to hold elections in Parke and Hendricks counties in February, and in Marshall, Pulaski, Porter and Starke shortly afterward. In all the counties mentioned there is a strong temperance sentiment.

Superintendent Shumaker said that law and order leagues will be organized in the "dry" counties to see that the sale of liquor is prohibited. In practically all of the "dry" counties now the "blind tigers" are doing a flourishing business in spite of the stringent laws enacted against them two years ago. The elections in Wabash and Lawrence counties will put forty-two saloons out of business within a short time.

TEACHERS TAKE ACTION

Movement for a Pension Fund Formally Inaugurated.

Indianapolis, Dec. 31.—Teachers of the public schools of Indiana voted unanimously for the appointment of a committee to work for a law providing a disability benefit and a pension for superannuated teachers.

The vote, looking to the passage of an act by the Indiana legislature in 1911 creating a school pension fund and for paying teachers a sick or disability benefit, was on motion that the president of the State Indiana Teachers' association be empowered to appoint a committee of three to act with representatives of the county and the cities and towns superintendents' associations of this state. The teachers will have a lobby at the coming session of the legislature to look after their interests.

Burton Adherents Jubilant.

Columbus, O., Dec. 31.—An unexpected and it is believed final turn was given to the senatorial contest in this state last night when Congressman Theodore E. Burton and Charles P. Taft, the two leading candidates, held a long conference. It was said that an amicable settlement of the contest between the two was discussed and it is believed that a final agreement will be announced today. The adherents of Mr. Burton claim that the conference means the selection of their candidate and are jubilant today.

Willis Wasn't Lost.

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 31.—The rigid search that has been instituted to locate Willis H. Smith, a student at the Kentucky state university, who disappeared on Sept. 20 last, came to an end Wednesday, when the young man appeared at the home of his sister in this city. Smith told a story crammed with mystery and romance, claiming to have been seized by masked men, taken to a boxcar to north of Owensboro, where he was kept for several days, from which he escaped, making his way to Louisville and then to this city.

HEAVYWEIGHTS TO MIX

Hart and Schreck Get Together in Lexington, Ky., Tonight.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 31.—Tonight Marvin Hart of Louisville and Mike Schreck of Cincinnati, heavyweights will get together in a twenty round fight in the opera house here.

Although Hart calls himself former heavyweight champion of the world declaring that Jeffries gave the title to him when the big Californian retired from the ring, he is no longer taken seriously by sports. This is due in part to his defeats at the hands of Tommy Burns and others. Schreck is also not a bright star in the pugilistic skies, but the two men are pretty evenly matched, and a good scrap is expected.

Shot Former Sweetheart and Self. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 31.—An hour after he had wished his former sweetheart, now a bride of less than a week, a "long life and a happy one," Ray Reese returned to her home in Kansas City, Kan., and shot her through the breast, after which he stepped into an adjoining room and committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. The woman, Mrs. Clyde Setzer, nineteen years old, is not expected to live.

Hanly Party Homeward Bound. Vicksburg, Miss., Dec. 31.—Governor Hanly of Indiana and party, who came to Vicksburg to participate in the dedication of the Indiana monuments and markers in the National Military park here, left for their homes last night aboard a special train. The visitors devoted yesterday to an inspection of the park.

Anna Keeps the Boys. Paris, Dec. 31.—Count Boni de Castellane's suit against his former wife, the Princess de Sagan, for the custody of their children, has been decided adversely to the plaintiff. Princess de Sagan, formerly Anna Gould, retains the custody of the three boys.

Consul and Mrs. Cheney Dead. Naples, Dec. 31.—The commander of the Russian battleship Makharoff, which has arrived here with refugees from Messina, brings word that Arthur S. Cheney, the American consul at Messina, and his wife, died under the debris of the consulate.

Mrs. William Shuttles, wife of a farmer, near Kankakee, Ill., was killed by the accidental discharge of a shotgun that her husband was taking off a peg in the kitchen of their home.

The battleship fleet is expected at Suez Jan. 3.
